Vanessa Wells Records Request – Response

Original Request Missing Emails:

This request is denied due to it being overly broad and ambiguous. A request can be overly broad when a public office is unable to identify the records sought. See State ex rel. Bristow v. Baxter, 6th Dist. No. E-17-060, 2018-Ohio-1973, ¶¶ 9-13 (requests for every incoming and outgoing email sent and received by certain public officials and their employees for one-month periods overbroad because they seek “a complete duplication of the respondents’ email files, albeit in one-month increments”). You are welcome to revise your request to include a smaller time frame, specific topics, subject matter, search terms, specific senders or recipients beyond Mr. Merriweather, etc.
